

WEDNESDAY 21 JANUARY

9h00

Welcome speech & General introduction Valorisation & IP

9h30

Valorization of technical inventions: patent protection

What is a patent? Is it possible to protect my search results with a patent? Is the patent compatible with publications? The objective of this training is to answer all these questions and to take stock of the patentability criteria, best practices..

10h30

Digital Protection

How can I protect my results as code? What are the filing procedures? The objective of this training is to learn how to protect the digital and to take stock of software protection tools.

11h30

Open Science

What is open science? What are the best practices for publishing and promoting my thesis, including internationally? How can we use open access? The objective of this course is to provide an overview of good practices in open science

12h30

Break

14h00

Literary and artistic property

Introduction to Literary and artistic property. What is it ? How can it protect me ? And what are the best practices?

15h00

What if my PhD could help me become an entrepreneur?

Join us for a fun session and learn how to turn your research results into entrepreneurial opportunities. We'll talk about: most common opportunities and barriers for young researchers, case studies and real life example solutions and organisations to help you go from your idea to an actual project.

16h00

A successful project : Innovalangues

Storytelling of a successful project of valorisation

17h00

THURSDAY 22 JANUARY

By Unite!

IN PROGRESS